

CAMPAIGN OF ATROCITIES
PRACTICED BY GERMANSCharges Made in Documents Drawn Up by Various French Officials.

COPY TO STATE DEPARTMENT

Description and Assassinations Systematic and Performed in Accordance With Orders and Not as Result of Lack of Discipline.

WASHINGTON, September 26. The French ambassador, Jules Jusserand, made public today a summary of ten documents drawn up by various French officials, accusing the German soldiers of a systematic campaign of atrocities. The documents, which were placed in the hands of Acting Secretary Lansing, of the State Department, by the ambassador, also were sent to the State Department, and will be made public by the State Department.

The documents, which are numbered, show that the destruction and assassinations which have taken place have been systematic, and performed in accordance with orders from the officers, and not as the result of an accidental lack of discipline.

The facts quoted are given only as samples, and not as complete enumeration. They cover, moreover, only the first three weeks after the beginning of hostilities. Two weeks of actual warfare and worse deeds have been committed since.

SHOTS FIRED AGAINST

FACES OF WOUNDED.

"Such as they are, they show among other things," that wounded soldiers have been killed in large numbers by shot fired right against the face of the wounded. That Pont-a-Mousson, an open and undefended town, was bombarded, the hospital, which is an historical building, having especially suffered. A number of villages, among them Pains and Merville have been methodically destroyed, houses by houses, soldiers being as it seems, provided with implements enabling them to perform this kind of work with a minimum of trouble. The number of wounded who have been killed in the front of the battle, and the number of wounded who have been killed in the rear, are not given.

Attention is called, as regards such deeds, to two texts. Article III of the convention of The Hague, which was proposed by the Germans themselves, states that the belligerents who might be held responsible for any acts committed by members of their army.

"In the same case, even if civilians had taken arms upon the invasion of French territory, by the Germans, which was nowhere the case, their rights, and the killing of them, would have been undeniably, for Article IV of the same convention reserves to the population of a non-occupied territory the right, on the approach of the enemy, spontaneously to take arms and repel the invading troops.

Appended to this convention, besides the signature of the United States, France and many other countries is to be found that of Germany."

RUSSIAN FORCES
CONTINUE ADVANCE

because once in Germany all the ammunition and food of the advancing Russian army must come from the direction of Warsaw.

It is possible, however, that the acute panic now prevailing in Cracow in anticipation of the Russian advance has already spread across the German frontier in Silesia, through that great and prosperous and densely-populated valley of manufacturing towns as rich as Pittsburgh in capital and industry, and much more beautiful in its farms and gardens.

If the Russian advance is not checked, the shock to the entire social and industrial system of Germany will be as marked as that which spread through Belgium when the irresistible avalanche of German soldiers started through Liège.

FIELD MARCHAL FRENCH

PAYS VISIT TO PARIS.

(Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.) PARIS, September 26.—Field Marshal Sir John French, the British commander-in-chief, paid a flying visit to Paris today. While the main purpose was undoubtedly in connection with military affairs, the opportunity was taken by the aide who accompanied Sir John to lay in a supply of groceries. An English woman who happened to be in the shop acted as interpreter. Among the supplies were twenty-four bottles of whiskey, four bottles of rum, coffee and canned goods. The bills totaled $55.

GERMAN WOUNDED

BEING WELL CARED FOR

WASHINGTON, September 26.—The French embassy received today the following message from Bordeaux:

"The United States ambassador at Paris and the minister plenipotentiary to Bordeaux have visited the camps of the German wounded in the Gironde, where the German prisoners and wounded are gathered. Both representatives of the United States declare that the organization in the camps is perfect, and that the prisoners are well satisfied with the treatment and care given them."

The message probably refers to Ambassador Herriek and John W. Garrett, formerly United States minister to Argentina, who is acting as secretary at Bordeaux.

MARTIAL LAW DECLARED

IN EASTERN PROVINCES

PARIS, September 26 (10:42 P. M.).—A dispatch to the Havas Agency from Amsterdam says that to prevent the exportation of contraband articles to Germany, the Netherlands government has declared martial law in the eastern provinces.

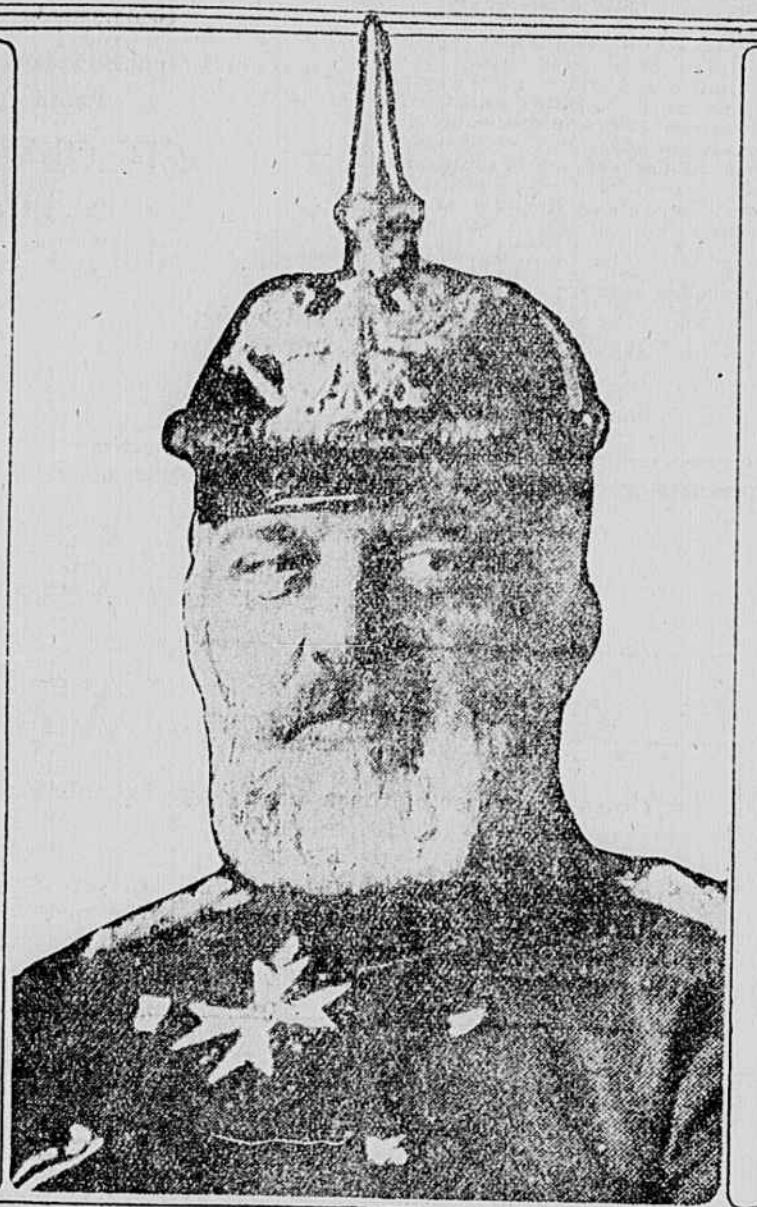

WOUNDED GIVE DETAILS

OF SIEGE OF FORT TROYON

LONDON, September 26 (11:26 P. M.).—A Reuter dispatch from Paris says:

"Wounded who have arrived at Montlucon give details of the siege of Fort Troyon, near Verdun. They say that, the Germans were bombarding the commander of the fort did not reply, but set fire to two earthenware straw inside the structure. The Germans, convinced that their shells had started the fire, and that they could scarcely take place, advanced in close formation.

"The French then opened fire with their mitrailleuses. The number of German bodies abandoned in slopes around Fort Troyon is estimated at 7,000."

DESCRIPTION OF DAMAGE

TO RUINS CATHEDRAL

LONDON, September 27 (1:05 A. M.).—

A Reuter dispatch from Paris says Thiebault Sisson, art critic of the Temps, has visited the cathedral at Reims, and gives the following description of the structure as it now stands:

"To judge of the damage, it is necessary to ascend the towers. There is scarcely a bell completely melted. The roof of lead plates had disappeared, the magnificent campanile of wood and lead, erected at the crossing of the transepts and apse, had vanished. The vaults are standing, and the nave was not touched by fire."

The writer thinks, however, that the autumn rains and frost will play havoc with the stones, and that measures must be taken immediately to strengthen the walls. He concludes by quoting the words of the German Emperor's son to the Rheims municipality a few days before the bombardment:

"The best proof of my desire not to touch the building is that I am anxious to put the wounded inside."

JAPANESE OCCUPY

STATIONS AT WEI HSIEN.

WEI HSIEN, September 26 (via Peking, September 27 (1:15 A. M.).—Two hundred Japanese entered Wei Hsien on Friday and occupied the railway station, capturing four Germans.

The Chinese troops encamped near-by are fraternizing with the Japanese soldiers. Rail communication to the east and west of this town has been suspended.

Wei Hsien is an important city in the Chinese Province of Shang Tung, about fifty miles north of the German concession of Kiauchow, with which it is connected by railroad.

BELGIANS IN ENGLAND

CLAMOR FOR THEIR TEA

What Refugees First Accepted as a Duty Now Becomes a Pleasant Habit.

CAMPING IN IDEAL QUARTERS

Great Exhibition Hall of Alexandria

Palace Filled With Homeless Foreigners, Who Easily Fall Into New

Way of Living.

Correspondence of Associated Press.

LONDON, September 26. Every day at 5 o'clock a bell rings in the great exhibition hall of Alexandria Palace, whereupon 1,500 women, children and old men, with a scattering of youths, set up a clatter of wooden shoes. This clatter is now the largest and most continuous in the world.

The camp for Belgian refugees in the London district, and makes ideal quarters for the homeless foreigners. Not many weeks ago the same people were struggling away from their burning villages, some for the Dutch frontier, to be herded together in Flushing, and others toward Belgium, whence they were sent to England. Ultimately they found their way to a London railway station, bewildered by the noise of traffic and the strange language about them. There they were rounded up by kindly people, and put into motorbuses for the various camps.

Attendants at Alexandria Palace say the refugees on the first day or two seemed starved. The break in their narrow, peaceful lives by war and travel overwhelmed them. Then they began to fall into the new way of living. For many, ease and plenty no doubt was a novel experience, after years of frugality and hard labor.

Says there is nothing to do but to wander in the great halls, with their stupid, the remains of a Japanese fair, and a bird house in the wood park outside, the heights of which command an extensive view of London.

These peasants, trained in extremely frugal living, had hitherto managed to live on three meals a day, but in the refugee camps they found a fourth meal at 5 o'clock. At first they took tea as a duty. Then they found it helped to break a long interval in a monotonous day. Now they clamor for it. As it is easier to acquire a habit than to break it, they may on their return fix the tea habit on rural Belgium.

The older Belgians have not yet recovered from the horrors they have passed through. They sit on the benches, and-eyed and dumb, paying no attention to the children romping about them. One of the volunteer interpreters at the palace says their stories are so harrowing she no longer can bear to hear them. Some of the women have met fresh griefs in the death of their babies from malnutrition and exposure during the days of their flight. The hospital has now about thirty-five such headless babies, and the women have lost their lives in the playground with its swings and merry-go-rounds.

Cots have not yet been provided but the refugees have comfortable mattresses and plenty of covers. There is a daily issue of second-hand clothing.
Every day a group of refugees, with bags giving their destination, fastened to a buttonhole are taken from the camp and sent to various parts of England where homes have been found.
There are only about 5,000 in the camps and Secretary H. E. Mackay, of the war refugees committee, which acts for the government, says he has received 60,000 offers of not from persons in all parts of the United Kingdom and 30,000 offers of homes.

PETERSBURG MAN

KILLED DOWN AND KILLED

PETERSBURG, VA., September 26.—

Orlando Edwards, aged about thirty years, was instantly killed to-day by the Street by an electric car of the Virginia Railway and Power Company.
Edwards attempted to cross in front of the car and was struck and dragged under the wheels. His body was badly mangled and the car had to be jacked up before his remains could be gotten from underneath the wheels.

TWO BOMBS DROPPED IN TOWN NEAR ANTWERP

ANTWERP, September 27 (via Lon-over the town of Duff, near here, Saturday destroyed two bombs, which fell in the water.Appetite Follows Good Digestion

Nearly every one indulges their appetite and the digestive organs are abused, resulting in a congestion of poisonous waste that clogs the bowels and causes much misery and distress.

The most effective remedy to correct this condition is the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This is a natural, pleasant-tasting remedy, gentle yet positive in action, and quickly relieves indigestion, constipation, sick headache, belching, etc. Drug stores sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, large and small sizes. It is the indispensable family remedy. For free trial bottle write Dr. W. B.
Caldwell, 461 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

Burns Anything

It's the only stove for this climate, because right now these damp, chilly nights you can make your room very comfortable by just burning a few handfuls of shavings or kindling wood.

And yet the smallest size of this wonderful stove will heat two rooms easily in the coldest winter nights, using either hard or soft coal.

It's a pretty stove, too—look at the large transparent door and the nickel re-flectors.

We've sold this stove for the last ten years, and our customers are all wildly enthusiastic over it. We guarantee it absolutely, and yet we NEVER had to replace a single one. Prices, $21.50 and $23.50.

We also show a large assortment of other Heating and Cooking Stoves, including the

MRS. DEANE TO MARRY RAPP

Woman Named by Schumann-Heink in Successful Suit for Divorce.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NEW YORK, September 26.—Mrs.

Katherine E. Deane, who was named by Madame Ernestine Schumann-Heink in the latter's successful suit for divorce from her third husband, William Rapp, Jr., admitted to-night that she and Rapp are to be married as soon as the Illinois law will permit.

"Yes, if you must know, we are to be married," declared Mrs. Deane.

"When," she was asked.

"Well, Mr. Rapp's people and interests all are in Chicago, and the Illinois law forbids his remarrying for a year. We can wait."

REVENUE BILL IN SENATE

Administration Leaders Expect to Have

Report Adopted During Week.

WASHINGTON, September 26.—War revenue legislation will be taken up by the Senate Finance Committee on Monday in an effort to bring it before the Senate after the Clayton antitrust bill conference report is disposed of.

Administration leaders expect to have the report adopted next week.

The House revenue bill reached the Senate to-day, and was referred to the Finance Committee. A disposition is growing among Senators to substitute a tax on automobiles, rated on horsepower, for the tax of 2 cents a gallon on gasoline.
